US budget deficit seen at $1.1T

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new budget report released Tuesday predicts the US government will run a $1.1 trillion deficit in the fiscal year that ends in September, a slight dip from last year but still very high for any nation.

The Congressional Budget Office says the fiscal year 1995 deficit will be $1.1 trillion, or 3.5 percent of the gross domestic product. The report says the deficit will be $1.05 trillion in 1996, or 3.2 percent of GDP.

The report also predicts that the deficit will be $1.05 trillion in 1997, or 3.2 percent of GDP. The report says the deficit will be $1.05 trillion in 1998, or 3.2 percent of GDP.

The report also predicts that the deficit will be $1.05 trillion in 1999, or 3.2 percent of GDP. The report says the deficit will be $1.05 trillion in 2000, or 3.2 percent of GDP.
